I understand that there are risks, foreseen and unforeseen, associated with playing in and attending baseball games and practices. I release and do not hold the Coaches, Officials and other agents of the parish of Holy Rosary, the Holy Rosary Booster Club, the Diocese of Evansville, and the respective Leagues responsible for any injuries that may occur to the below-named player during the course of practices, games or by being present on the premises or in attendance before, during or after such events. I further certify that my child does not have any physical/health limitations that would prevent his/her participation in baseball/softball. My child is participating with my full consent.
